Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psallite in cythara et voce psalmi, quia mirabilia fecit.

Hear the voice and prayer
Thomas Tallis (c.1505-1585)

And when thou hear’st have mercy on them.

1 Kings 8: 28-29
Tuesday 10 October

Nisi Dominus (1610)

Nisi Dominus aedificaverit domum, in vanum laboraverunt qui aedificant eam.

Nisi Dominus custodierit civitatem, frustra vigilat qui custodit eam.

Vanum est vobis ante lucem surgere: surgite postquam sederitis, qui manducatis panem doloris.

Cum dederit dilectis suis somnum: Ecce haereditas Domini, filii: merces, fructus ventris.

Sicut sagittae in manu potentis: ita filii excussorum.

Beatus vir qui implevit desiderium suum ex ipsis: non confundetur cum loquetur inimicis suis in porta.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.

Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper.

Et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

Unless the Lord builds a house, in vain do they labour who build it.

Unless the Lord guards a city, in vain does the watcher guard it.

It is pointless for you to get up early: you get up before you have gone to bed, you who eat the bread of misery.

For he has granted rest to those he loves: behold an inheritance from the Lord — sons: a reward, the fruit of the womb.

Like arrows in the hand of a powerful man: such are the sons born in your youth.

Blessed is the man who has fulfilled his desire with these; he will not be confounded when he speaks with his enemies at the gate.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be.

World without end. Amen.

Psalm 127

When David heard
Thomas Weelkes (1576-1623)

> When David heard that Absalom was slain, he went up to his chamber over the gate, and wept; and thus he said: O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom, would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son.

2 Samuel 18: 33

_Os justi_
Anton Bruckner (1824-1896)

Os iusti meditabitur sapientiam, et lingua eius loquetur iudicium.
Lex Dei eius in corde ipsius et non supplantabuntur gressus eius.
Alleluia.

The mouth of the just man is exercised in wisdom, and his tongue will be talking of judgement.
The law of his God is in his heart, and his footsteps will not be distracted.
Alleluia.

_Psalm 37: 30-31_

Sunday 15 October

_O thou sweetest source_
Charles Wood (1866-1926)

O thou sweetest source of gladness, light’s all lovely fountain head,
Who, alike in joy and sadness, leavest none unvisited;
Breath of Godhead, highest king, who upholding everything.
Wilt uphold, with love undying—hear, O hear me humbly crying.

From thy throne, as April shower, thou descendest, heavenly one,
Freighted with thy sevenfold dower, from the Father, and the Son:
Bring me noble guest divine, God’s own blessings, they are thine,
Freely deal at thy good pleasure, fill me in abundant measure.

Save, uphold, and go before me, fainting, be my staff and rod:
Dying, to new life restore me; buried, be my grave, O God.
From the dust when I arise, come, exalt me to the skies,
Where thou within realms supernal, feed thy saints with joys eternal.
Amen.

German; translated G. R. Woodward (1848-1934)

Sing joyfully
Adrian Batten (c.1591-1637)

O sing joyfully unto God our strength; make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.
Take the song, bring hither the tabret: the merry harp with the lute.
Blow up the trumpet in the new moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.
For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.

Psalm 81: 1-4

Tuesday 17 October

Lead me Lord
Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

Lead me, Lord, in thy righteousness: make thy way plain before my face.
For it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Psalms 5: 8; 4: 9
Of one that is so fair and bright
Velut maris stella,
[Like the star of the sea,]
Brighter than the day is light,
Parens et puella:
[Mother and maiden:]
I cry to thee, thou see to me,
Lady, pray thy Son for me
Tam pia, [So tender,]
That I may come to thee.
Maria!

Lady, flow’r of ev’rything,
Rosa sine spina,
[Thornless rose,]
Thou bare Jesu, Heaven’s King,
Gratia divina:
[By divine grace:]
Of all thou bear’st the prize,
Lady, queen of paradise
Electa: [Chosen:]
Maid mild, mother es Effecta.
Effecta. [You are fulfilled.]
Saturday 21 October

O nata lux

O light of light, by love inclined,
Jesu, redeemer of mankind,
With loving kindness deign to hear
From suppliant voices praise and prayer.
Thou who to raise our souls from hell
Didst deign in fleshly form to dwell,
Vouchsafe us, when our race is run,
In thy fair body to be one.

Hymn at Lauds on the Feast of the Transfiguration, translated by Laurence Housman (1865-1959)
Glorious and powerful God, we understand
Thy dwelling is on high
Above the starry sky.
Thou dwell’st not in stone temples made with hand;
But in the flesh hearts of the sons of men
To dwell is thy delight,
Near hand, tho’ out of sight.

We give of thine own hand, thy acceptance
Is very life and blood,
To all actions good.
Whenever here or hence our supplication,
From pure and with unfeigned hearts, to thee ascends,
Be present with thy grace,
Shew us thy loving face.

Oh! down on us full show’rs of mercy send,
Let thy love’s burning beams
Dry up all our sin’s streams.
Arise, O Lord, and come into thy rest,
Both now and evermore thy name be blest,
Founder and foundation
Of endless habitation.

Te lucis ante terminum
H. Balfour Gardiner (1877-1950)

Te lucis ante terminum,
Rerum creator, poscimus,
Ut solita clementia
Sis praesul ad custodiam.

Procul recedant somnia
Et noctium phantasmata,
Hostemque nostrum comprime,
Ne polluantur corpora.

Praesta, Pater omnipotens,
Per Jesum Christum Dominum,
Qui tecum in perpetuum,
Regnat cum Sancto Spiritu. Amen.

Their sound is gone out
Arthur Wills (b. 1926)

Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words unto the ends of the world.
Thou shalt make them princes in all lands; they shall remember thy name, O Lord, from one generation to another.

_Romans 10: 18_

Teach me, O Lord
William Byrd (c.1535-1623)

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.
Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.
Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.
Incline my heart unto thy testimonies: and not to covetousness.
O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
O stabljsh thy word in thy servant: that I may fear thee.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, and is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Psalm 119: 33-38

Ave verum corpus
Grayston Ives (b. 1948)

Ave verum corpus, natum de Maria virgine, vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine. Cuius latus perforatum fluxit aqua et sanguine esto nobis praegustatum, mortis in examine. O Jesu dulcis, O Jesu pie, O Jesu fili Mariae.

Jesu, word of God incarnate, of the virgin Mary born,
On the cross thy sacred body for us men with nails was torn.
Cleanse us, by the blood and water streaming from thy pierced side;
Feed us with thy broken body. Now, and in death’s agony.
O clement, O sweet Jesu, son of Mary.

Eucharistic hymn, attributed to Pope Innocent VI (d. 1362)
Saturday 28 October

Hail, gladdening light
Charles Wood (1866-1926)

Hail, gladdening light, of his pure glory poured who is immortal Father, heavenly, blest, holiest of holies, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now are we come to the sun’s hour of rest,
the lights of evening round us shine,
we hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit divine.

Worthiest art thou at all times to be sung with undefilèd tongue,
Son of our God, Giver of life, alone,
Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

The ancient Greek evening hymn Phos hilaron,
translated by John Keble (1792-1866)

..... 🙏️.....
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The heavens are not too high,
His praise may thither fly:
The earth is not too low,
His praises there may grow.
    Let all the world in every corner sing,
    My God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The Church with psalms must shout,
No door can keep them out;
But above all the heart
Must bear the longest part.
    Let all the world in every corner sing,
    My God and King!

George Herbert (1593-1633)

_O clap your hands_
Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

O clap your hands together, all ye people; O sing unto God with the voice of melody.
For the Lord is high, and to be feared; he is the great king of all the earth.
He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet. He shall choose out an heritage for us, even the worship of Jacob, whom he loved.
God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet.
O sing praises unto our God: O sing praises unto the Lord our king.
For God is the king of all the earth: sing ye praises with the understanding.
God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon his holy seat.
For God, which is highly exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a shield.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

And I saw a new heaven
Edgar Bainton (1880-1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and first earth had passed away, and there was no more sea. And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying: ‘Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people; and God himself shall be with them and be their God; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.’

I will lift up mine eyes

Ernest Walker (1870-1949)

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help. My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord himself is thy keeper, the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand; So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

In manus tuas                                Thomas Tallis (c.1505-1585)

In manus tuas, Domine, commendo spiritum meum.
Redemisti me Domine, Deus veritatis.

Into your hands, Lord, I commend my spirit.
You have redeemed me Lord, God of truth.

Responsory at Compline on Passion Sunday
Denn alles Fleisch es ist wie Gras, und alle Herrlichkeit des Menschen wie des Grases Blumen.
Das Gras ist verdorret und die Blume abgefallen.
So seid nun geduldig, liebe Brüder, bis auf die Zukunft des Herrn.
Siehe, ein Ackermann wartet auf die köstliche Frucht der Erde und ist geduldig darüber, bis er empfange den Morgenregen und Abendregen.
Aber des Herrn Wort bleibet in Ewigkeit.
Die Erlöseten des Herrn werden wiederkommen und gen Zion kommen mit Jauchzen; ewige Freude wird über ihrem Haupte sein, Freude und Wonne werden sie ergreifen, und Schmerz und Seufzen wird weg müssen.

For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass.
The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.
Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord.
Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.
But the word of the Lord endureth for ever.
And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Geistliches Lied
Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Lass dich nur nichts nicht dauren
Mit trauren;
Sei stille,
Wie Gott es fügt,
So sei vergnügt
Mein Wille.
Was willst du heute sorgen
Auf morgen?
Der Eine
Steht allem für;
Der gibt auch dir
Das Deine.
Sei nur in allem Handel
Ohn’ Wandel,
Steh feste;
Was Gott beschleusst,
Das ist und heisst
Das Beste.
Amen.

Do not let yourself be depressed
By sadness;
Be calm,
However God may dispose,
Be content with it,
My will.
Why worry today
About tomorrow?
There is One
Who controls everything;
He will give you
Your share too.
Be constant in everything
You undertake,
Stand firm;
What God ordains
Is and is known to be Best.
Amen.

Salve regina
William Byrd (c.1535-1623)

Salve Regina, mater misericordiae, vita, dulcedo, et spes nostra, salve!
Ad te clamamus, exules filii Evae,
ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes,
in hac lacrimarum valle.
Eja ergo, advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis, post hoc exilium, ostende,
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis virgo Maria.

Hail, Holy Queen, mother of mercy,
[Hail] our life, our sweetness and our hope!
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve,
to thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this, our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

_Salve Regina_

Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

See text and translation for 13 November on p. 23.
There is an old belief,
That on some solemn shore,
Beyond the sphere of grief
Dear friends shall meet once more.

Beyond the sphere of Time and Sin
And Fate’s control,
Serene in changeless prime
Of body and of soul.

That creed I fain would keep
That hope I’ll ne’er forgo,
Eternal be the sleep,
If not to waken so.

Komm, Jesu, komm
J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Komm, Jesu, komm, mein Leib ist müde,
Come, Jesus, come, my body is weary,
Die Kraft verschwindt je mehr und mehr,
My strength fails me more and more,
Ich sehne mich Nach deinem Friede;
I am longing for your peace;
Der saure Weg wird mir zu schwer!
The bitter way is becoming too hard for me!
Komm, komm, ich will mich dir ergeben;
Come, I shall give myself to you;

Du bist der rechte Weg,
You are the right way,
die Wahrheit und das Leben.
the truth and the life.

Drum schließ ich mich in deine Hände
Therefore I put myself in your hands
Und sage, Welt, zu guter Nacht!
And bid goodnight to the world!
Eilt gleich mein Lebenslauf zu Ende,
If my life’s course hastens onto the end,
Ist doch der Geist wohl angebracht.
My soul is then well-prepared.
Er soll bei seinem Schöpfer schweben,
It will rise up to be with its creator,

Weil Jesus ist und bleibt
For Jesus is and remains
Der wahre Weg zum Leben.

Great lord of lords, supreme immortal king,
O give us grace to sing

O word of God, from ages unbegun,
The Father’s only son,
With him in power, in substance, thou art one.

O Holy Ghost, whose care doth all embrace,
Thy watch is o’er our race,
Thou source of life, thou spring of peace and grace.

All, all is thine, thy light
Beholds alike the bounds of depth and height.

Bernard Rose (1916-1996)

When the sun

Cecilia
nine trumpets blazing at her side
glides over sea and land
rousing great organs and voices
to join in song.

Sing

Gregory Rose (b. 1948)

When midday heat

Sing

sing to the Creator
as this great Saint

entreats flutes to play
lulling her people
to calm rest.

Friday 24 November

Vox dicentis

Vox dicentis: Clama. Et dixit: quid clamabo?
Omnis caro foenum, et omnis gloria eius quasi flos agri.
Vere foenum est populus; exsiccatum est foenum, et cecidit flos;
verbum autem Domini nostri manet in aeternum.
Super montem excelsum ascende, tu qui evangelizas Sion; exalta in fortitudine vocem tuam, qui evangelizas Ierusalem;
exalta, noli timere.
Dic civitatibus Iuda: ecce Deus vester: ecce Dominus Deus in fortitudine veniet, et brachium eius dominabitur, ecce merces eius cum eo, et opus illius coram illo.
Sicut pastor gregem suum pascet; in brachio suo congregabit agnos, et in sinu suo levabit; foetas ipse portabit.

The voice said, cry; and he said, what shall I cry?
All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.
Surely the people is grass; the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.
O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain;
O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!
Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.
He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

Isaiah 40: 6-11
Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited, and redeemed his people;
And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David;
As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets: which have been since the world began;
That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us;
To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant;
To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us,
That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies: might serve him without fear,
In holiness and righteousness before him: all the days of our life.
And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sins;
Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us;
To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Thogh thou be king veray,
But nevertheless I will not cese
To sing, ‘By by, lullay, lullay’.

My dere moder, whan time it be,
Thou take me up on loft,
And sette me upon thy knee,
And handell me full soft;
And in thy arme thou hill me warme,
And kepe night and day;
If that I wepe and may not slepe,
Thou sing, ‘By by, lullay lullay’.

Now swete son, sin it is so,
That all thing is at thy will.
I pray thee graunte me a bone
If it be both right and skill.
That child or man that will or can
Be merry upon my day,
To blisse hem bring, and I
Shall sing ‘Lullay, by by, lullay’.

_A tender shoot_ Otto Goldschmidt (1829-1907)

A tender shoot hath started up from a root of grace,
As ancient seers imparted
from Jesse’s holy race;
It blooms without a blight,
    Blooms in the cold bleak winter,
Turning our darkness into light.

This shoot, Isaiah taught,
    from Jesse’s root should spring;
The virgin Mary brought us
    the branch of which we sing:
Our God of endless might,
    Gave her this child to save us,
Thus turning darkness into light.

Kindle a light
Michael Fleming (1928-2006)

Kindle a light to lighten the darkness
Kindle a light each nation and race:
God in the poor is coming to meet us
Kindle a light to shine on his face.

Kindle a light to lighten the darkness
Kindle a light for all who despair:
God in the poor is coming to judge us
Kindle a light with fasting and prayer.

Kindle a light to lighten the darkness
Kindle a light in places of shame:
God in the poor is coming to heal us
Kindle a light with hope in its flame.

Kindle a light to lighten the darkness
Kindle a light for sorrow to cease:
God in the poor is coming to free us
Kindle a light for justice and peace.
