

NEW COLLEGE CHAPEL

A Service of
Readings and Music
for the Season of Advent

SATURDAY 28TH NOVEMBER 2020
SUNDAY 29TH NOVEMBER 2020

17.45

Advent is a time of waiting. We wait for the dawning of love in our hearts, as all the earth waited for the birth of the child Jesus. We look back to that birth two thousand years ago, and forward to the time when love comes again and will wipe every tear from our eyes. We wait in darkness, we wait in hope, we wait for renewal, we wait for the eternity of love to break into our frail mortal time and declare that love makes all things new.

ORDER OF SERVICE

The congregation remains seated as the choir sings the introit.

RESPONSORY G. P. da Palestrina, arr. David Willcocks (1919-2015)

I look from afar; and lo, I see the power of God coming, and a cloud covering the whole earth.

Go ye out to meet him and say: Tell us, art thou he that should come to reign over thy people Israel?

High and low, rich and poor, one with another, Go ye out to meet him and say:

Hear, O thou shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep,
Tell us, art thou he that should come?

Sir up thy strength, O Lord, and come to reign over thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

After the First Responsory of Advent Sunday at Matins

All stand.

BIDDING PRAYER

All sit as the choir sings the hymn.

O come, O come, Emmanuel!
Redeem thy captive Israel,
That into exile drear is gone
Far from the face of God's dear Son.
*Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

O come, thou Branch of Jesse! draw
The quarry from the lion's claw;
From the dread caverns of the grave,
From nether hell, thy people save.

*Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

O come, O come, thou Dayspring bright!
Pour on our souls thy healing light;
Dispel the long night's lingering gloom,
And pierce the shadows of the tomb.

*Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

O come, thou Lord of David's key!
The royal door fling wide and free;
Safeguard for us the heavenward road,
And bar the way to death's abode.

*Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

O come, O come, Adonai,
Who in thy glorious majesty
From that high mountain clothed with awe
Gavest thy folk the elder law.

*Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

CAROL

arranged by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

This is the truth sent from above,
The truth of God, the God of love,
Therefore don't turn me from your door,
But hearken all both rich and poor.

The first thing which I do relate
Is that God did man create;
The next thing which to you I'll tell
Woman was made with man to dwell.

Thus we were heirs to endless woes,
Till God the Lord did interpose;
And so a promise soon did run
That he would redeem us by his son.

And at that season of the year
Our blest redeemer did appear;
He here did live, and here did preach,
And many thousands he did teach.

Thus he in love to us behaved,
To show us how we must be saved;
And if you want to know the way,
Be pleased to hear what he did say.

See the joy from the East

Baruch 4. 36-5. 9

ANTHEM

Michael Wise (c. 1648-87)

Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough places shall be made plain.

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together.

And the voice said cry, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and the goodliness thereof is as a flower that is in the field.

The grass withereth, and the flower fadeth, but the word of the Lord shall stand fast for ever.

O Zion, that bringest glad tidings, get thee up into the mountains.

O Jerusalem, that bringest glad tidings, lift up thy voice with strength, and say unto Judah, behold thy God.

Isaiah 40. 3-9

THIRD READING

Luke 1. 5-25

The birth of John the Baptist foretold

MOTET

William Byrd (c. 1535-1623)

Rorate caeli desuper et nubes pluant justum: aperiatur terra et germinet salvatorem.

Benedixisti Domine terram tuam: avertisti captivitatem Jacob.

Gloria Patri et Filio et Spiritui Sancto: sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

*Drop down ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness:
let the earth open and bring forth a Saviour.*

Lord, thou hast blessed thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Amen.

Introit at Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Advent

HYMN

Hark! A herald voice is calling:
‘Christ is nigh’, it seems to say;
‘Cast away the dreams of darkness,
O ye children of the day!’

Startled at the solemn warning,
Let the earth-bound soul arise;
Christ, her sun, all sloth dispelling,
Shines upon the morning skies.

Lo! the lamb, so long expected,
Comes with pardon down from heaven;
Let us haste, with tears of sorrow,
One and all to be forgiven;

So when next he comes with glory,
Wrapping all the earth in fear,
May he then as our defender
On the clouds of heaven appear.

Honour, glory, virtue, merit,
To the Father and the Son,
With the co-eternal Spirit,
While unending ages run. Amen.

6th century hymn at Lauds in Advent, Vox clara ecce intonat; trans E. Caswall (1814-78)

FOURTH READING
The Annunciation

Luke 1. 26-38

MOTET

William Byrd

Ecce virgo concipiet et pariet filium, et vocabitur nomen eius Emmanuel. Alleluia.

Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel, God with us. Alleluia.

*Communion Antiphon for the Fourth Sunday in Advent and the Feast of the Annunciation;
Isaiah 7. 14*

CAROL

John Joubert (1927-2019)

There is no rose of such virtue
As is the rose that bare Jesu.
Alleluia.

For in this rose containèd was
Heav'n and earth in little space,
Res miranda.

By that rose we may well see
There be one God in persons three,
Pares forma.

Then leave we all this worldly mirth
And follow we this joyous birth,
Transeamus.

MAGNIFICAT

Judith Weir (b. 1954)

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Luke 1. 46-55

SIXTH READING

Luke 1. 57-67

The birth of John the Baptist

ANTHEM

Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

This is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

And he confessed, and denied not; and said plainly, I am not the Christ.

And they asked him, What art thou then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

Then said they unto him, What art thou? that we may give an answer unto them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

And he said, I am the voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord.

John 1. 19-23

SEVENTH READING
Do not lose heart

2 Corinthians 4. 1, 5. 7, 16, 18

HYMN

Lo! he comes with clouds descending
Once for favoured sinners slain;
Thousand thousand saints attending
Swell the triumph of his train:
Alleluya!
God appears, on earth to reign.

Every eye shall now behold him
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at nought and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing
Shall the true Messiah see.

Those dear tokens of his passion
Still his dazzling body bears,
Cause of endless exultation
To his ransomed worshippers:
With what rapture
Gaze we on those glorious scars!

Yea, amen! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne;
Saviour, take the power and glory:
Claim the kingdom for thine own:
O come quickly!
Alleluya! Come, Lord, come!

John Cennick (1718-55) & Charles Wesley (1707-88)

All stand.

PRAYERS AND BLESSING

Let us pray that we may watch faithfully until the coming of our Lord.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light,
now in the time of this mortal life,
in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility;
that on the last day,
when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead,
we may rise to the life immortal;
through him who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

May God the Father, judge all-merciful, make us worthy of a place in his kingdom.

Amen.

May God the Son, coming among us in power, reveal in our midst the promise of his glory.

Amen.

May God the Holy Spirit make us steadfast in faith, joyful in hope and constant in love.

Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be with you all, evermore.

Amen.

All sit as the choir sings the hymn.

HYMN

Of the Father's heart begotten,
Ere the world from chaos rose,
He is Alpha: from that Fountain
All that is and hath been flows;
He is Omega, of all things
Yet to come the mystic Close,
Evermore and evermore.

By his word was all created;
He commanded and 'twas done;
Earth and sky and boundless ocean,
Universe of three in one,
All that sees the moon's soft radiance,
All that breathes beneath the sun,
Evermore and evermore.

This is he, whom seer and sibyl
Sang in ages long gone by;
This is he of old revealèd
In the page of prophecy;
Lo! He comes, the promised Saviour;
Let the world his praises cry!
Evermore and evermore.

Sing, ye heights of heaven, his praises;
Angels and Archangels, sing!
Wheresoe'er ye be, ye faithful,
Let your joyous anthems ring;
Every tongue his name confessing,
Countless voices answering,
Evermore and evermore.

Prudentius (b. 348) translated by R. F. Davis (1866-1937)

The congregation stands as the clergy leave the chapel, then sits for the organ voluntary.
